We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of Breaking the Silence (CIC) (hereafter: "the company") as of December 31, 2012 the statement of activities, the statement of changes in net assets and the statements of cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's Board of Directors. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

Comparison figures for December 31, 2011 and for the year ending on that date, were audited by other accountants who gave an unqualified opinion on September 22, 2012.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing Standards in Israel, including those prescribed by the Auditors' Regulations (Auditor's Mode of Performance) – 1973. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes an examination, on a test basis, of evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes an assessment of the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by the board of directors and management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statements presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the company as of December 31, 2012, and the results of its activities, the changes in net assets and the changes in cash flows for the year then ended according to Generally Accepted Accounting principles (Israeli GAAP).
